DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The DEUTSCH HOUSE dates from ca. 1895-1905, an early example of the American Colonial revival having touches of the so-called Queen Anne Style. Of frame construction, two and one-half storeys in height with a gambrel roof, its lower walls are covered with weatherboarding, each board planed to appear as two narrow boards; gable walls are covered with wood shingles. A one storey porch extends across the south or principal front and around each end. A square bay in the second storey projects above the principal entrance in the west bay and another, two full storeys in height, is at the east end. Two wide dormers are in the broad gambrel roof. A small kitchen wing is behind the northwest corner.

Four rooms are on each floor of the main house, the southwesterly being the stair and entrance hall. Most original detailing remains including the staircase with its moulded rail supported by turned balusters and newels rising above a closed string, the corner block trim, the six-panel doors, the mantels in an original Adamesque style, etc.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This is one of several very similar houses in a row built ca. 1900 in the American Colonial revival style as it emerged from the Queen Anne style. This example is little changed from its original design.

The house on this property & three others just to the East were built about 1890 & were summer cottages for the Chattalane Hotel.

The Stork family were the owners & built the Hotel, & in a Deed dated Oct. 2, 1889, (J.W.S. 175 folio 582) William L. Stork purchased said property from Samuel S. Clayton & William A. Fisher, Trustees. The land & houses were kept in the family until 1951 when C. Warner Stork sold all four houses to Osborne P. Beall & wife, Deed dated Jan. 16, 1951, (G.L.B. 1920 folio 559).

A Deed dated July 16, 1962 (Book 4018, folio 229) Osborne P. Beall & wife to William G. Fastie & wife - land & all four houses were purchased. Mr. Fastie rented said houses & sold what is now known as #1 Golf Course Road - William G. Fastie to Sackett S. Cook & Phyllis F. Cook Deed dated Oct. 1, 1968 (Book 4924 folio 714).

A Deed dated March 30, 1976 shows 0.99 of an acre with improvements was purchased from the Cooks by Harold K. Deutsch & Sandra P. Deutsch, wife (Book 5620, folio 215).

From the time these houses were built they have never been vacant. The Stork family, as well as the Bealls, rented said houses until sold to Mr. Fastie who in turn sold each house & land individually.
